Hello All, A couple of photos for your interest. One of our younger members, Andrew Jenkins got married to Leigh Reader last weekend. Andrew is a hunting, fishing man so on the way down to the wedding I said facetiously to Lesley "Do you think Andrew will go fishing this morning? I was told not to be stupid. Of course I was wrong, he went hunting and got his first deer. Here he is with the deer - the next shot shows the dear he married in the afternoon! Wonderful wedding! Cheers, Peter
