Dear All, While we are talking about Daffodil Society Awards here are two others who were honoured at our AGM (Annual General Meeting) on Sunday. They are Reg Nicholl, President who was made a Life Member, highest award the Society can bestow, who is presenting the George Tarry Award to Mike Flinton, this annual award is given to someone who has given outstanding service to the Daffodil Society. Just in case you are wondering which is which, Reg wears his Chain of Office, Mike wears the yellow tie. Regards to all, Ian
