Dear Friends,

Within a couple of weeks we hope to welcome many of you for the World Daffodil Tour and special the Dutch part. We know that some of you start for this trip very soon. All of you who comes to us .We want to wish you a good and safe trip and looking forward to welcome you

At the moment the weather is cold in Holland not more then 5/6 grad celcius,even with frost at night.We expect that the early daffodils will over in the third week of April,but also we expect many daffodils to see but also beautiful fields with other bulbs.For any one who have a question or need some help about the Tour or other information donot hesitate to ask me.

I will be in London for the Daffodilshow and the Daffodil dinner on the 15th of April and will give you the latest information.

Again have a safe trip and bring all you happiness with you then we make a great time of it with pleasure,information,fun but forall Friendship

All the best Jan Pennings info@pennings-de-bilt.nl
