

pinks - Double

Author : John McLennan, New Zealand

Categories : Breeding, Hybridizing, Seedling

Date : July 27, 2008

I,ve used Gee Pink quite extensively in attempting to breed early pink doubles.

It,s very strong stem and neck are a necessity for good doubles.

The double has opened slowly this week in a deep polyurathene egetable box of 4 year old seedlings

Quite a surprise as they were a little crowded and not expected to flower,-- the stem was a little short and not strong .

Can only hope for an improvement.

Breeding -- Gee Pink x 4 W P [Pastel Rose x Replete]