Friends, I am taking advance orders for the 2010 version of the ADS Tom D Throckmorton Daffodil Data Bank. The price will remain $35, which will include shipping in the US. International interests should contact me in advance, to make arrangements for the high cost of shipping, or perhaps you would prefer to pick up your copy at the ADS 2010 National Convention. The DataBank will be available, and I will begin shipping the orders, no later than mid-NOV. A limited number of copies are printed each year, based on advance orders. When that supply is gone, it is no longer cost effective to print a small number of copies. So please get your advance orders in now.

Cordially,

Jaydee Atkins Ager
