Convention Friends,

Becky Brown (the creator of the 2010 Convention logo) will also have two of her drawings in Ironstone's prestigious Spring Obsession Art Show. Becky's entries will be in the daffodil-theme section of the Art Show. The Art Show will have been judged the weekend previous to our Convention and the entries will be hanging in the main Ironstone building. That building is where the majority of our programs will be, and where we will dine.

Friends:

Ironstone Vineyards, the site of upcoming ADS Convention in Murphys CA from March 11-14, has an art show along with its other daffodil festivities each spring. Two of the paintings in the exhibit this year are by ADS member Jackie Turbidity. To see them in a larger size than I'm posting, go to <http://Ironstonemuseum.blogspot.com> Scroll down about 2/3 of the way to see the Spring Obsession Competition. There are Jackie's two beautiful paintings, which will be for sale at Ironstone.
