Dear All,

Just a quick reminder, you only have one more week to enter the Daffnet Olympic Competition.

It's free, no Catch involved, just a bit of fun as I know many on Daffnet are sport minded, so get a wiggle on and get your entries in to me as soon as possible at:-

maddafi@gmail.com

Also further information if needed can be gleaned from my previous email or direct to me.

The excitement is building big time here, I'm nearly moved to take some exercise!

You only have to predict how many medals Team GB will win, That's Gold, Silver and Bronze.

Many thanks to all who have entered so far your entries have be registered.

Happy predicting and Good Luck,

Ian
